Acceptable Use Policy for ICT

1. Introduction

This document defines the Oatridge College's policy in respect of the acceptable use of its information and communications technology (ICT) facilities.

2. Purpose

The IT and Resource Centre Team is responsible, on behalf of the College, for minimising and containing potential risks to the College and its members, both operational and legal, from the consequences of the misuse of its ICT facilities. The purpose of this policy is therefore to state clearly both users' obligations in using these facilities and IT and Resource Centre Team's responsibility and authority in taking action to safeguard them.

3. Scope

This policy applies to all staff, students, contractors, consultants, authorised guests and other personnel at the Oatridge College and includes Acceptable Use, Personal Use and Prohibited Use of the College's ICT facilities, which encompass (but are not restricted to):

- network infrastructure, including (but not exclusively) the physical infrastructure whether cable or wireless, together with network servers, firewall, connections, switches and routers
- network services, including (but not exclusively) internet access, web services, email, wireless, messaging, telephony and fax services
- computing hardware, both fixed and portable, including (but not exclusively) personal computers, workstations, laptops, PDAs, servers, printers, scanners, disc drives, monitors, keyboards, tablets and pointing devices
- software and databases, including (but not exclusively) applications and information systems, virtual learning and videoconferencing environments, software tools, information services, electronic journals & ebooks

4. Responsible Authorities

The term "Designated IT and Resource Centre Team Authority" used in this policy means the Assistant Principal (Resources) or his / her authorised delegate. The Team Leader, IT and Resource Centre is responsible for the prevention, detection and investigation of incidents of ICT misuse.

5. Policy Statements

5.1 General

It is the policy of the College:

- to provide a working environment that encourages access to knowledge and sharing of information
- to maintain ICT facilities for academic and administrative purposes which provide access to its community for local, national and international sources of information that ICT facilities will be used by members of its community with respect for the public trust through which they have been provided, and in accordance with prevailing laws and such regulations and policies established from time to time by the College and its Board of Management

- To ensure that the College is protected by holding users responsible for safeguarding passwords and access identities. Passwords and identities must not be shared.

5.2 Acceptable Use

It is the policy of the College:

- that the College's ICT facilities are provided in support of the College's teaching, learning, research, enterprise, and administrative activities
- that they may be used for any purpose that is in accordance with the aims and policies of the College and the JANET Acceptable Use Policy, including interworking with other organisations e.g. West Lothian Council.
- that only registered users (i.e. those holding valid IT and Resource Centre Team usernames and passwords) or those given permission by the designated authority are permitted to use the College's ICT facilities.
- that users are expected to:
  - be prepared to show IT and Resource Centre Team staff their ID card as proof of identity. This must be shown when requesting any changes to a network account.
  - respect the published times of access to the facilities
  - respect the rights of others, and conduct themselves in a quiet orderly manner when using the open access facilities
  - comply with all valid regulations and legislation covering the use of Copyright and licensed material, including software, whether those regulations are made by law, or the originator of the material, or the distributor of the material or the College, or by any other legitimate authority
  - make all reasonable efforts to send data that is 'Virus Free', and to protect themselves from viruses and hacking attempts when connected to the College's network either on or off Campus. The College will not be held responsible for any damage to users' systems or information that occurs through such virus or hacking attacks.
  - conform to all other appropriate policies and guidelines from IT and Resource Centre Team and the College and externally (including the JANET Acceptable Use Policy).

5.3 Personal Use

The College accepts that a member's Personal Use of the College's ICT facilities is within the scope of Acceptable Use, subject to the provisos within this document. It is the policy of the College:

- that provided that personal use is occasional and reasonable and does not interfere with , nor detract from an individual's everyday workload and commitments, nor with the effective functioning of the College or any part of it, and that it complies with all other terms of this Acceptable Use Policy then it will normally be tolerated

- to reserve the right to withdraw access to ICT facilities for this category of use at any time.

5.4 Unacceptable Use

It is the policy of the College to prohibit the use of its ICT facilities when used or attempted to be used intentionally in contravention of the general principles outlined in 5.1 above. 31. contravene applicable laws and prevailing regulations and policies applied by bodies external to the College, including but not restricted to JANET (the Joint Academic Network).

5.5 Prevention, Detection & Investigation of Misuse

Monitoring may take place, to facilitate academic and pastoral care by ensuring that students not using electronic systems vital for study are identified and encouraged to do so and thereby not fall behind or drop out. Monitoring may take place periodically within the guidelines set down by the Regulation of Investigatory Powers Act (RIPA) 2000.

The College retains the right under the RIPA Act to access all information held on its information and communications facilities to monitor or intercept any system logs, web pages, E-mail messages, network account or any other data on any computers system owned by the College. This will be for the purposes of preventing, detecting or investigating crime or misuse, ascertaining compliance with regulatory standards and College policies, or to secure effective system operation.

The College reserves the right to inspect and validate any items of College owned computer equipment connected to the network. Any other computer equipment connected to the College's network can be removed if it is deemed to be interfering with the operation of the network.

It is the policy of the College:

- to publish its Acceptable Use Policy and to promote this to all users of the College Network
- to provide advice to staff and students, on request, on matters relating to acceptable use
- to take swift and effective action within existing disciplinary and / or legislative frameworks against anyone found to be intentionally misusing the information and communications facilities.

In all cases where there is the potential for the College's ICT facilities to be misused, it is the College's policy to:

- record the identity of the individual using the specific facility at any given time
- retain these records for not less than three calendar months, and shall make them available to those senior managers appointed by the College to investigate complaints of misuse
- destroy these records after twelve calendar months unless required in connection with a specific investigation.

6. Legislation

6.1 Computer Misuse Act 1990

It is a criminal offence (Computer Misuse Act 1990) to gain unauthorised access to a computer system to make any unauthorised modification of computer material (including the introduction of a computer virus) or to interfere with any computing system provided in the interests of health and safety. For more information see http://www.hms0.gov.uk/acts/acts1990/Ukpga\_19900018\_en\_1.htm

6.2 Data Protection Act 1998

The Data Protection Act 1998 regulates the storage of personal information (i.e. any information that can be identified as relating to a particular person or person(s) on computer systems. Before storing any such information on the College computer system, you must notify the College Data Protection Officer in writing. It is everyone's responsibility to ensure that any such information complies with the law. For more information regarding Data Protection see <http://www.dataprotection.gov.uk>

6.3 Libel

Libel is a civil wrong, which in proven cases, may incur substantial compensation. It is very complicated and therefore one of the easiest laws to contravene through ignorance. Facts concerning individuals or organisations must be accurate, verifiable and views or opinions must not portray their subjects in any way that could damage their reputation. Check with the College Legal Office before publicly displaying any contentious material. Web pages and E-mail messages are regarded as published material.

6.4 Copyright

The Copyright laws of the UK and other countries must not be infringed. Downloading material from the Internet carries the risk of infringing copyright. This applies to files, music, films, TV programmes, documents and software, which must be licensed. Material illegally copied in this country or elsewhere and then transmitted to another country via the Internet, will also infringe the copyright laws of the country receiving it.

Copyright, Design and Patents Act 1998 is applicable to all types of creations, including text, graphics and sounds by an author or artist. This will include any that are accessible through the College's computer systems.

Any uploading or downloading of information through on-line technologies which is not authorised by the copyright owner will be deemed to be an infringement of her/his rights.

Users must not make, transmit or store an electronic copy of copyright material on the College's computing services without the permission of the owner.

7. Sanctions

Where misuse of ICT facilities has been identified, the matter will be investigated under the College's appropriate disciplinary procedure. The Assistant Principal (Finance and Resources) or his / her nominee has the authority to investigate cases of alleged misuse and where applicable to apply sanctions directly, or to refer individuals to their department/team for disciplinary action.

Any misuse which is in contravention of the law and/or which involves the intentional access, creation, storage or transmission of material which may be considered indecent or obscene will be regarded as an act of gross misconduct.

Students may be expelled for gross misconduct under the College's student disciplinary procedures and staff may be dismissed under the College's staff disciplinary procedures.

Where there is evidence of a criminal offence, the issue will be reported to the Police for them to take action. The College will co-operate with the Police and other appropriate external agencies in the investigation of alleged offences.

8. Other References

Users are bound by the Law of Scotland when using the College's ICT facilities e.g. The Telecommunications (Lawful Business Practice) (Interception of Communications) Regulations 2000 at:
<http://www.hmso.gov.uk/si/si2000/20002699.htm>

In addition, when accessing computers abroad, the rules of that country apply. It is the user's responsibility to ensure his/her activities comply with these laws.

The use of the College's information systems facilities is subject to all relevant College regulations detailed in the College's policies and procedures. When making use of the Internet, the acceptable use policies of the carriers apply, in particular those of JANET.
